Balti Fare

This style of cooking originates from the mountainous Kashmir region. A variety of herbs and spices are ground into a thick paste to create a unique, medium hot and spicy flavour. Plenty of pureed onion, seasoning and coriander are added and then cooked in a large iron pot, with the chosen meat or fish. The meal is served with tandoori naan bread. Rice and vegetables are recommended.

Classic Main Courses

Chicken	£6.30	King Prawn	£8.90
Meat or Prawn	£6.80	Mix Vegetable	£5.30
Chicken or Lamb Tikka	£7.30	Paneer (V)	£5.90

Kurma (M)

A mild, sweet and creamy dish consisting of ground coconut and cream, cooked with gentle aromatic spices. A Peshawari naan and boiled rice are recommended.

Dansak / Pathia 🌶️

The Persian Dansak dish was served as part of an emperor's feast. It has a thick lentil base flavoured with spices, cane extract, tamarind and lemon juice to give it a hot, sweet and sour taste. A Pathia is similar dish with a richer sauce, without lentils.

Bhuna

A typical Bangladeshi dish, with a thick onion gravy. Medium strength sauce with gentle spices. We recommend fresh cauliflower baazi and onion rice side orders with Bhuna dishes.

Curry or Madras 🌶️

The traditional basic curry with a medium sauce that is suitable for all curry lovers. Or a spicier and hotter Madras sauce with fresh lemon juice.

Korai

This dish is a definite favourite for the Indian food devotee. Mixed spices are added to an onion, garlic and ginger base. This creates a deliciously tasty thick sauce of medium strength. Generous pieces of onion, capsicum and tomato are then added to the sizzling iron Korai with the chosen meat, vegetable or fish.

Rogan Josh

Sliced tomatoes in a gently spiced sauce are used to lavishly top a medium strength bhuna style dish.

Saag

Fresh spinach is seasoned and cooked with garlic and ginger to bring out its flavour. The meat is then added and cooked till the flavours are fused together. Lemon rice and dhal are a perfect side.

Seafood Delights

Saag or dhal side orders and lemon rice are recommended with these dishes.
